TV ANOUNCER

Welcome back to Damerica's Favorite family, Theeeeeee Cannnnibillians!!!

CANNIBILLION'S DINNER TABLE WITH THE FAMILY GATHERED ROUND.

MR. CANNIBILLION

Billy, your mother said you met a new friend at school. I'm glad you're meeting new friends.

BILLY

Yes dad, he was very nice to me.

MRS. CANNIBILLION

They hung out all afternoon.

BILLY

We went to the beach and went fishing for plastic.

MR. CANNIBILLION

You catch anything nice?

BILLY

Yeah, we caught a seal.

MR. CANNIBILLION

A seal! Well, gee golly, that's great!

BILLY

It was a bathtub seal... we used it to seal the bathtub.

Canned Laughter.

MR. CANNIBILLION

Well, that's just great. It's an important lesson for us take things out of the ocean and put them to great use... You should invite your friend over, I'd like to meet him.

BILLY

I did. He came over for dinner.

MR. CANNIBILLION

Where is he, in the bathroom?

BILLY

He'll got to the bathroom later, but he's at the table... mom wanted to meat him.

Canned laughter.

MRS. CANNIBILLION

Sorry dear, he was just so cute and adorable that I could pinch his cheeks and eat him all up.

Canned laughter.

MR. CANNIBILLION

You know I've always liked your friends, but really this has to stop! We are a law abiding family.

DAUGHTER

Not me, and I don't like your friend Billy, he's a bitter person.

Canned laughter.

DAUGHTER (CONT'D)

I'll take prison meat over him anytime.

Canned laughter.

MR. CANNIBILLION

See, our daughter knows. Prison meat is good for you. God blessed us with both a solution to both our overcrowded prisons and a lack of food source. That's what it's there for, for consumer consumption. But, shame on you breaking the law!

MRS. CANNIBILLION

I'm sorry dear... I know it's frowned upon, but you weren't here to instill better judgement upon me like a good patriarch does... and... he really did look so adorable.

Canned laughter.

MR. CANNIBILLION

Well there's going to be some changes around here! From now on, we are going to obey the law... everyone of us.

Canned laughter.

MRS. CANNIBILLION

You so right, dear. I'm sorry, your so right... it is important to the survival of our species that all children are allowed to live to a ripe age. And after they're 18, we'll leave our trustworthy governmental food process plants to impose a draft and lottery when necessary. They care about us so much!

MR. CANNIBILLION

There you go. Ge golly, you learned your lesson. We've all learned a gee golly lesson.

MRS. CANNIBILLION

(joking)

Your fatherly wisdom is so right, that I could just eat you up.

Canned laughter.

MR. CANNIBILLION

Ha ha, you know that's illegal too.

Canned laughter.

MRS. CANNIBILLION

Ha ha, when your right your right! So, what do we do with the rest of Billy's friends though chilling downstairs?

MR. CANNIBILLION

Well, we'll keep them chilling till morning and have them over for breakfast... Don't want to break the law and waist food.

Loud canned laughter as the whole family laughs. Credits roll with canned applause. After the credits finish, the news program comes back on.

NEWS STATION.

CLAUDE

(laughing)

Ah, gotta love the Cannibillians.

CLAUDINE

(to Claude)

I love how they always weave in positive messages. I think it's going to take the record for longest running show. People have really taken to it, more than that Fiends show.

CLAUDE

One can only hope... Well folks, welcome to evening news.

CLAUDINE

We've been following the breaking news on the escalations between Gusto and Plazari. The good news to report is that threat of nuclear force is no longer present.

CLAUDE

The bad news though... is... that it is no longer a threat. The last remaining governmental structure of Plazari have been obliterated into a mushroom cloud. Unfortunately for the remaining population, their leaders set up offices in the remaining snow caps.

CLAUDINE

(to Claude)

If only those clouds were full of mushrooms. Delicious! You ever try mushrooms. I guess they need a lot of water to grow.
