

A WOMAN IN LABOR INSIDE A SMALL LIVING ROOM WITH SOME PEOPLE AROUND HELPING.

As the woman is pushing really hard, Grandma and others around are helping to deliver the baby. The baby comes out quickly, as they quickly dry him off and hand him to Mal.

GRANDMA

It's a boy! I have a beautiful grandson!

PAUL

Quick dear, feed him, he looks starving.

Mal begins to breast feed the baby, while the others help to get her cleaned up. Paul goes and grabs a red fruit that looks somewhat like a pomegranate but in a mango shape with soft edible peel. Mal begins eating the fruit while feeding the baby.

MAL

Diapers!

PAUL

I got them!

The baby has already grown larger by the time Paul gets the diaper and puts it on the baby. Grandma and Paul also grab some fruit and start eating.

MAL

Paul, we haven't names him yet.

PAUL

Didn't have time, Mal. Let's name him now.

MAL

Maybe, Ouch!

PAUL

Na, to unpleasant sounding.

MAL

No, he's already started teething.

She pulls the baby away from her breast. As grandma get the polaroid picture and starts taking pictures, sticking them on the wall with thumb tacks.

Oh, he's laughing and smiling to.

PAUL
 "Hooray!" That's a good name. Put him down, let him play.

Mal puts the baby down, and quickly changes another diaper.

MAL
 Too many syllables, how about "Ho" or "Ra".

PAUL "Ra" it is!

The baby, larger now, starts crawling and then crying. Mal picks him up and feeds him, as Grandma is taking picture.

MAL
 He's crawling!

PAUL
 That's beauty! I got to go to work honey, we've got extra mouths to feed now.

Paul quickly grabs an empty basket and his fruit and leaves out the door. Mal is changing the baby's diaper again, as he feeds. She puts the baby down. The baby, not about 9 months old, starts taking his first steps.

MAL
 My gosh, his first steps, I wish Paul couldn't of been here.

GRANDMA
 I've got in on Roid for him. I have to call your father.

Mal changes the diaper again, as both Grandma and Mal are eating more fruit. Grandma picks up the old button phone and presses the button.

GRANDMA (CONT'D)
 (on the phone)
 You're a grandpa, a boy named Ra.
 Pass along the news. I'll bring home a picture.

She hangs up the phone. Baby Ra is now back down on the ground playing. He points up at Mal and speaks his first word.

RA Mama.

Grandma and Mal get elated and excited. Paul comes back in the house with a small basket of fruit. RA = 1 YEAR OLD.

PAUL
I'm back from work.

MAL
I've missed you, Honey! Ra's started walking and talking. I hate that you always have to work.

GRANDMA
We got it on Roid. I have to check on Grandpa now. It's been 2 and a half minutes since I've seen him.

PAUL
Here take a few of these with you.

He hands her two fruit and goes to kiss his son and wife.

GRANDMA
I can't, you guys are just trying to get by. We have our retirement saving anyways.

Paul takes Ra, now even larger, to a wall of pictures. Ra is eating fruit.

PAUL
Nonsense. You can use the help.
(pointing at the pictures)
Grandpa. Grandma. Great grandpa, auntie.

GRANDMA
Thank you. You all come by next door and visit you grandpa.

MAL
By Mal!

RA Dada!

PAUL
So happy to hear that! He needs changing.

He puts down Ra and helps to change him again.

MAL
I have to use the lew.

PAUL
Take some fruit case you get hungry.

She leaves, taking a fruit as Ra and Paul are also eating fruit. Ra is running around pointing at things. RA = 1.5 YO.

RA
Dada, momma gone? Fly fly.

Paul takes out a small child's book and shows it to Ra flipping pages quickly.

PAUL
That's little girl. That's food.
That's technology grown from the ground.

Mal re-enters now eating a fruit and drinking water. She brings a fruit to Ra and Paul, as they grab it and start eating.

PAUL (CONT'D)
Teaching him the birds and bees.
He's speaking new words.

Mal goes and changes his diaper again.

MAL
He's a little young for that.

PAUL
He's over three minutes old already.

MAL
We should plan a family trip now, while we still can, a playdate with other kids and then a visit grandpa and grandma.

PAUL
I have to work, no time.

MAL
We'll arrange it right by your work.
(frustrated)
I need to get out, I've been cooped up in here for almost 5 minutes!!

PAUL
I'm tired of arguing! Alright, I'm sorry, you're right. Forgive me.
